

Dear colleagues,

To increase people-to-people understanding among the Belt and Road countries, the Chinese government provides a full scholarship, CGS program (правительственная стипендия Китая), for outstanding international students to pursue undergraduate, postgraduate or doctoral degrees in various majors in designated Chinese universities.

The Silk Road Sunshine Fund, a public fund under SRCIC, partners with several universities in promoting education and cultural exchange, including the Xi'an Jiaotong University, Northwest Polytechnical University, Northwest University, Chang'an University, and the Shaanxi Normal University. These universities have all joined the CGS program, and offer a wide array of specialities for international students, such as science, engineering, agriculture, medicine, economics, legal studies, management, education, history, literature, philosophy, and fine arts. We ask for your kind assistance in spreading the information and encourage outstanding students of your country to join the CGS program and pursue their academic life in the above universities.

The CGS Admission Information (Annex I) and the Chinese Government Scholarship Application Form (Annex II) are attached for your reference.

Please kindly note that applicants need to submit all required materials to info@srcic.org by March 30, 2019 for undergraduate studies, and April 30, 2019 for graduate and PHD studies. We shall transfer the documents to the universities for unified selection along with relevant recommendation.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any further questions.

Look forward to your reply.

Best Regards,

The Silk Road Sunshine Fund subsidizes excellent students from the Belt and Road countries to study in Xi'an, China. So far, Silk Road Sunshine Fund has supported students from Russia, Kazakhstan, Palestine, Kyrgyzstan, Ukraine, Lebanon, and Azerbaijan to study in top Chinese universities.
